

Daily Bulletin
Friday, February 3, 2023

Good Morning Standley Staff and Students, please rise for the Pledge of Allegiance. Put your right hand over your heart. (Pause) Ready, begin: I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic, for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Thank you, you may be seated.

Student Announcements

Born Marguerite Annie Johnson, Maya Angelou was a poet, novelist, educator, memoirist, actress, civil rights activist, and so much more. She was shaped by experiences while living overseas in Egypt and Ghana, and worked alongside Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr. (who was, tragically, assassinated on Angelou's birthday). Her autobiography I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings (1970) was the first bestseller written by an African American woman. "On the Pulse of Morning," one of her most famous poems, was recited at the 1993 inauguration of President Bill Clinton. Angelou received countless awards and earned more than 50 honorary degrees from various universities.

Candy Valentine's Grams will go on sale next week at both lunches. Look for the Valentine's Gram table to order your Valentine's gram for $1! The grams will be delivered during AP on Valentine's days!! All messages need to be school appropriate or will not be delivered.

Have a Friendly Friday!