Good Morning Standley Staff and Students, please rise for the Pledge of Allegiance. Put your right hand over your heart. (Pause) Ready, begin: I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic, for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Thank you, you may be seated.

Student Announcements

Attention staff and students! Tomorrow is the Annual Marine Challenge. Members of the United States Marine Corps will be on campus tomorrow to join our students in P.E. classes. Are you ready for the challenge?

No Place for Hate will meet today in room 514 during second lunch. Please be sure to bring your lunch with you.

For everyone that celebrates Lunar New Year- Happy Year of the Rabbit! From the No Place for Hate Committee.

Club Live meeting is second lunch today in room 602 Ms. Leezy's. Bring your lunch! We are trying to come up with a motto that could be put on hats, t-shirts, or posters. We do need some artists to join us to help us put a visual with our motto. Here are some mottos students are playing with:

"Loud Voices for Healthy Choices!"

"Don't be a R.I.P.! Make Fun SAFE Choices!"

"Bye Bye Addiction, Hello Strong Conviction!"

Anyone can join us! Be part of making our community a fun safe environment!

Book club will be held today during 2nd lunch. Please take attendance with your advisory teacher 1st. Due to book club the library will be closed during 2nd lunch today.

Attention Seahawk Sessions classes (Dale, Myer, Juergens, Plunkett and Frankel). Be sure to check the rosters posted outside of the auditorium as some seat numbers have changed. See you there!

Congratulations to all the students who participated in Standley's All-School spelling bee. The winner of the Bee was Alexander Innamorato who will now represent Standley at the county-wide spelling bee coming up in March. Kudos to Jayden Yao who finished as runner up and Yael Meltzer who finished in third place. Out top three contestants battled through over 40 rounds of words to determine a winner. Way to go, Seahawks!

Have a Thoughtful Thursday!
