Thursday, March 2, 2023

Good Morning Standley Staff and Students, please rise for the Pledge of Allegiance. Put your right hand over your heart. (Pause) Ready, begin: I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic, for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Thank you, you may be seated.

Student Announcements

Tomorrow is the deadline to sign-up for Standley's 10th Annual 3 on 3 half court tournament! 18 teams signed up, don't miss out on the fun! See Mr. Hartman if you have any questions! Games start next week!

Time is also running out to sign up for Standley's Flag Football! Make you you sign up this week, or you could miss out! See Mr. Hartman as well if you have any questions!

Last chances to sign up for the ASB Building Challenge! Sign up your team by the end of school tomorrow if you want to compete for prizes and ultimate bragging rights. Sign up today!

Attention 8th Grade Students-If you received a blue 8th Grade Activity/Promotion letter last week and have it with you, please stop by the counseling office and drop off the form. If you do not have it with you, make sure you take it home and have it signed by your parent and return to the counseling office ASAP. There is a green basket on the counter where you can drop them off in the Counseling Office.

Did you know that today is Read Across America Day? On this day students are encouraged to read. Do you love reading? Would you be willing to get involved and help spread the love of reading? If so please visit Mrs. Dowling in our library and fill out a book recommendation. All book recommendations will be displayed in the library for other students to view and then if interested other students can then check out and read the book you recommended. All qualified enters will receive a S.O.A.R. slip for participation.

No Place for Hate will meet in room 514 during first lunch. Please bring your lunch.

Have a Thoughtful Thursday!
